

CONSULATE GENERAL
OF SWEDEN

Mr. Leif Pagrotsky
Consul General of Sweden in New York is pleased to invite you to a

#FirstGeneration Seminar on Youth Engagement and the UN Sustainable Development Goals

with
Ms. Isabella Lövin
Swedish Minister for International Development Cooperation and Climate, and Deputy Prime Minister and
Mr. Gustav Fridolin
Swedish Minister for Education

Trollbäck + Company
490 Broadway, New York, NY
Thursday, June 9
9 am – 11:30 am

RSVP by June 8 to niklas.arnegren@gov.se

PROGRAM

Introductory Remarks

Leif Pagrotsky, Consul General of Sweden in New York

Communicating the Global Goals

Jakob Trollbäck, Founder, Trollbäck + Company

Video Greeting

David Nabarro, UN Special Adviser on the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Panel Discussion:

From Words to Action – Implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Isabella Lövin, Swedish Minister for International Development
Cooperation and Climate, and Deputy Prime Minister Magdy Martínéz-Solimán, Assistant Secretary General and Director of BPPS (Bureau for Policy and Programme Support), UNDP
Marie Paule Roudil, Director of New York Office, UNESCO
Zara Rapoport, Head of UN Liaison Office, New York, Plan International

Moderator: Lance Gould, Huffington Post

Video Presentation of #FirstGeneration

Panel Discussion:

Empowering and Engaging Young People in Global Sustainable Development

Gustav Fridolin, Swedish Minister for Education
Ahmad Alhendawi, United Nations Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth
Coco Killingsworth, Deputy Director/Director of Programs, Global Kids Katie Isaak Ginsberg, Founder and Executive Director, Children's Environmental Literacy Foundation (CELF)
Domenic Smith, President, AIESEC in the United States

Moderator: Lance Gould, Huffington Post