

CV Åsa Webber

Born on 14 October 1970 in Norrköping, Sweden

Professional Experience

- 2025 – Present
Deputy Permanent Representative of Sweden to the European Union
- 2025
Special Envoy for Simplification, Prime Minister's Office, EU Coordination
- 2019 – 2024
Head of Cabinet of Commissioner for Home Affairs, Ylva Johansson, European Commission
- 2014 – 2019
Deputy Permanent Representative of Sweden to the European Union
- 2010 – 2014
Head of Justice and Home Affairs Team, Permanent Representation of Sweden to the EU
- 2005 – 2009
Legal Counsellor for Criminal Justice, Permanent Representation of Sweden to the EU
- 1998 – 2004
Deputy Director, Division for EU Affairs, Ministry of Justice, Stockholm
- 1998
Fast Track Government Trainee Programme, Swedish Government Offices, Stockholm
- 1997 – 1998
Desk Officer, Legal Secretariat for EU Matters, Ministry for Foreign Affairs, Stockholm
- 1995 – 1996
Lecturer in European Law and Private International Law, Faculty of Law, Uppsala University

Education

- Uppsala University, Sweden
Master of Laws, 1990–1995
- Université de Nancy II, France
Graduate Studies, Spring 1993
- University of Reading, UK
Graduate Studies, Spring 1994