

CV Acko Ankarberg Johansson

Publicerad 09 november 2022

Minister for Health Care

Ministry of Health and Social Affairs

Party

Christian Democrats

Areas of responsibility

- Health and medical care

Education

1980-1983 Social Sciences Programme, Per Brahegymnasiet (upper secondary school)

Positions and assignments

2022-	Minister for Health Care
2018-2022	Member of the Riksdag
2011-2018	Secretary-General, Christian Democrats
2010-2011	Chair of the Board, Governing Board of the Swedish Transport Administration
2007-2008	Inquiry Chair, Freedom of Choice Inquiry

Acko Ankarberg Johansson, sjukvårdsminister

Foto: Kristian Pohl/Regeringskansliet

“Sweden must offer high-quality, timely and equitable care throughout the country. Our path to achieving this is through expanded primary care, more hospital beds and shorter queues for specialist care. We also want to introduce a national health care referral centre to increase access to care, and examine the possibilities to introduce complete or partial central government responsibility for health and medical care, to ensure access and quality.”

Personal

Acko Ankarberg Johansson was born in 1964. She lives in Huskvarna and is married.

2006-2010	Chair, Jönköping Municipal Executive Board
2003-2007	Member, Committee on Public Sector Responsibilities
1999-2010	Various positions, The Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions
1999-2006	Municipal Commissioner for the Opposition, Jönköping Municipality
1995	Member, Parliamentary Committee on Working Hours
1991-1998	Funeral Undertaker, Ankarbergs Begravningsbyrå
1986-1991	Study Organiser, YWCA-YMCA Study Association
1983-1991	Music Teacher, Jönköping Municipality