

CV Anna Tenje

Publicerad 08 december 2022

Minister for Older People and Social Security

Ministry of Health and Social Affairs

Party

Moderate Party

Areas of responsibility

- Care for older people
- Social security

Education

2000-2001	Master's level studies in political science, Linnaeus University
1999-2000	Course in practical philosophy, Linnaeus University
1996-2000	European administration/political science programme, Linnaeus University and University of Edinburgh
1994-1996	Finnveden Upper Secondary School, Värnamo

Positions and assignments

2022-	Minister for the Elderly and Social Security
2019-	Second Deputy Chair, Moderate Party

Anna Tenje, Minister for Older People and Social Security

Photo: Kristian Pohl/Government Offices

"It's high time that we work together on issues that concern older people, to ensure their dignity and good quality of life in old age. On the one hand, we will protect those who have worked a full working life by ensuring their financial security and meeting their needs for quality care. On the other hand, we must harness the high value that older people provide for the whole of society, combat age discrimination and make use of their knowledge and experience."

Personal

Anna was born in 1977. She is married with two children and lives in Växjö.

2017-2022	Chair, Växjö Municipal Executive Board
2015-2016	Chair, Education Committee, Växjö Municipality
2015-	Board member, Moderate Party
2011-2014	Chair, Technical Affairs Committee, Växjö Municipality
2006-2010	Member of the Riksdag
2001-2006	Political Secretary, Moderate Party, Kronoberg County Council
